I-CAR ANNOUNCES GOLD CLASS FOR STANLEYS PANEL WORKS, QLD

I-CAR Australia’s Director - OEM & Industry Relations, Jason Trewin, today announced that Stanley’s Panel Works, in north Queensland, has been awarded the prestigious I-CAR Gold Class Collision status.

“Modern day crash repair technology is rapidly changing and evolving. It is critical to be aware and up with the latest trends and repair methods. To deliver the absolute highest standard of repair, investment in training must be undertaken. I-CAR Gold class reflects the commitment of Stanley’s Panel Works and more importantly their team members, to further develop their skills and their ability to deliver excellence in collision repair,” commented David Leszczewicz of Stanley’s.

Jason Trewin Director - OEM & Industry Relations said “Stanley’s Panel Works in Cairns made the commitment to achieving I-CAR Gold Class two years ago and have recently received their accreditation. It’s fantastic to see a front runner in the industry setting the standard for all those to follow, and by achieving I-CAR Gold Class Stanley’s Panel Works joins an elite group of repairers to be recognised with this certification. Well done to all those involved.”

I-CAR, founded in 1979, is an international, not-for-profit, training organization dedicated to improving the quality, safety and efficiency of auto collision repair for the ultimate benefit of the consumer.
