I-CAR PRESENTED GOLD CLASS INSURER TO IAG

On Wednesday 6th February Mark Czvitkovits, CEO I-CAR Australia, presented the new Gold Class Insurer plaque to Steve Fitzpatrick, EGM Motor Repair Model, IAG.

IAG was the first and for several years the only Australian Insurer to attain this internationally recognised status. Their ongoing commitment to training has seen IAG retain their Gold Class accreditation for 6 years.

To attain and maintain Gold Insurer status a minimum of 60% of their assessors must maintain their individual Platinum Status by completing 10 initial I-CAR training courses then a further two courses in the following years. Nationally in excess of 90% of IAG assessors have Platinum status.

I-CAR, founded in 1979, is an international, not-for-profit, training organization dedicated to improving the quality, safety and efficiency of auto collision repair for the ultimate benefit of the consumer.
