I-CAR ANNOUNCES GOLD CLASS FOR BODYTECH AUTOMOTIVE

I-CAR Australia Gold Class Coordinator Gary Wood today announced that Bodytech Automotive in Castle Hill, New South Wales has been awarded the prestigious I-CAR Gold Class Collision status.

“Peter has built a fantastic business at Bodytech Automotive which is heavily based upon his commitment to professional development, not only for himself, but also his entire team. Bodytech have an entire wall that proudly displays the certificates from the numerous I-CAR courses they have been involved in over the years. It’s fantastic to announce that they have now met the Gold Class requirements and can proudly display the Gold Class plaque alongside their other certificates and achievements. Extremely well done from everyone at I-CAR Australia,” said Mr Wood.

“Here at Bodytech Automotive we live by the fact that it is our staff that create our impeccable customer service record. It is our customers who make us who we are, successful and profitable. We are forever grateful to them.

The cars that make their way to us are not just cars, they are our customers pride and joy, and they are our works of Art. We strive to keep ahead of the game with the latest processes, procedures, and our ongoing commitment to learning and developing our skills within the industry.

We are extremely proud and grateful of our partnership over the years with I-CAR. To have achieved I-CAR Gold status is an honour and a privilege as well as an enormous acknowledgement of our strive for excellence. We are looking forward to completing more courses in the future and further developing our skills and training so we can provide the best service and quality for our valued customers,” explained Peter Christodoulou.

I-CAR, founded in 1979, is an international, not-for-profit, training organization dedicated to improving the quality, safety and efficiency of auto collision repair for the ultimate benefit of the consumer.
