I-CAR ANNOUNCES GOLD CLASS FOR DOUGLAS & MILLER MOTOR BODY REPAIRS

I-CAR Australia Gold Class Coordinator Gary Wood today announced that Douglas & Miller Motor Body Repairs in Currajong, Queensland has been awarded the prestigious I-CAR Gold Class Collision status.

“We are extremely proud to be Townsville’s first I-CAR Gold Class repairer.

Obtaining this status formalises Douglas & Miller’s commitment to providing its customers with the reassurance that their vehicles are being repaired by tradesman who have been trained in the most up to date manufacturers repair methods giving our customers the highest level of repair standards.

We thank I-CAR for delivering their training in such a way that has made the program an enjoyable experience for all of our staff, and we look forward to continuing our training needs with I-CAR well into the future,” explained David Douglas.

“Douglas & Miller have confirmed their commitment to being part of the GM Certified Collision Repair Network by achieving Gold Class status with I-CAR Australia.

The entire team deserve recognition for their efforts to meet the requirements over the past year. They have taken advantage of the various training options on offer, including Virtual online delivery, the I-CAR welding certification and product specific training from their paint supplier, Glasurit, to ensure the training was accessible, relevant, and beneficial to all concerned. Great work and congratulations to everyone at Douglas & Miller,” said Mr Wood.
