I-CAR ANNOUNCES FIRST GOLD CLASS REPAIR SHOP IN REGIONAL NSW

I-CAR Australia CEO Mark Czvitkovits today announced that Hickeys Urunga Smash Repairs in the regional town of Urunga, NSW has been awarded the prestigious I-CAR Gold Class Collision status.

Mr Czvitkovits said “Wes and the team at Hickeys Urunga Smash Repairs have been regular participants in I-CAR training and have now been recognised as the first business in regional NSW to receive this award. Their commitment will provide customers with the assurance of complete, safe and quality repairs as a result of this achievement.”

“We here at Hickeys Urunga Smash Repairs are extremely proud to have achieved I-CAR Gold Class, we feel it has given our shop the edge in repairing cars properly in our ever fast changing industry. All our technicians now have the most up to date training on all the current changes in the industry thanks to I-CAR. I hope it will provide our customers and insurance companies with the peace of mind that all vehicles are being repaired to the highest standard by the highest qualified tradesman in our area,” said owner and manager Wes Chapman.

Mr Czvitkovits added “The commitment by another regional repairer highlights the importance for all repairers regardless of their location, to invest in their staff and provide significant benefits to their customer base.”
