

FORD ADAS REPAIR CALIBRATION

Course Overview

The Ford ADAS (Advanced Driver Assist System) Repair Calibration course is a one hour online course that will provide technicians with the information needed to accurately identify, locate, calibrate and repair Ford ADAS components.

Course Content

Overview

- Overview On How To Repair/Replace Components

Radar Sensors

- Sensors That Require Calibration
- Location / Inspect & Calibration Process

Ultrasonic Sensors

- Identify / Locate Ultrasonic Sensors

Lane Keeping Camera

- Location / Inspect & Calibration Process

360 Camera

- Location / Inspect & Calibration Process

Hud (Heads Up Display) Module

- Location / Inspect & Calibration Process

Course Highlights:

Points: 0.25

Estimated Duration: 1 Hour

Format: Online

Recommendations

This course does not require any prior learning or completion of other courses to commence.

Related courses:

Ford Advanced Driver Assistance Systems ADAS 101 - (FO017E01)

SCAN ME

Registration: To register for Ford ADAS Repair Calibration (FO016E01) SCAN QR or visit www.i-car.com.au

Contact Us On

 Ph: 07 3219 9088