I-CAR ANNOUNCES GOLD CLASS FOR MAXBUTTS AUTO BODYWORKS

I-CAR Australia is pleased to announce today that Maxbutts Auto Bodyworks in Ashmore, Queensland has been awarded the prestigious I-CAR Gold Class Collision status.

“We chose to enter the Road to Gold program to raise our standards and provide top-notch service to our customers. Achieving Gold Class status signifies our commitment to excellence and differentiates us in the collision repair industry. I wanted our team to benefit from the latest training and knowledge to stay ahead in this fast-changing field. By participating, we aim to ensure our repairs meet the highest industry standards, enhancing customer confidence and satisfaction.

The program offers a thorough framework that improves our skills, knowledge, and overall performance. This combined with the continuous learning aspect ensures that we stay updated with the latest industry standards and technologies.

Our team at Maxbutts Auto Bodyworks has become more skilled, confident, and tech-savvy, which has significantly improved our service quality, making it a worthwhile investment for any collision repair shop” explained Maxbutts Business Director, Danny Buzadzic

The requirement for training in the automotive body repair industry is becoming more important than ever before, the Gold Class status is the highest level of accreditation within the I-CAR Professional Development Program and highlights Maxbutts Auto Bodyworks ongoing commitment of having the skills and knowledge required to safely repair modern vehicles. Well done to everyone involved.

I-CAR, founded in 1979, is an international, not-for-profit, training organization dedicated to improving the quality, safety and efficiency of auto collision repair for the ultimate benefit of the consumer.
